HAIL AND RUST TAKE BIG TOLL IN WHEAT FIELDS ON PRAIRIES

Thousands of Acres in Alberta Damaged by Elements, While One-Third of Acreage in Three Provinces Is Infested by Disease—Loss Is Reported Heavy

OTTAWA, Aug. 8 (P).—Alberta has suffered from the worst hailstorms of recent years during the past three weeks, Dr. T. W. Grindley, head of the agricultural branch of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, stated today. He estimated 400,000 acres had been damaged from hailstorms.

Large districts had been hailed out entirely and other areas less seriously injured. Some of the best wheat-growing areas of the province have been hit.

One district riddled by hail stretched from Okotoks to Macleod in the foothills and extended 180 miles east to Gleichen. In a Calgary dispatch yesterday, Vaughan S. Kimpton, Liberal candidate for Gleichen in the Alberta elections, estimated 200,000 acres of wheat crop in that district had been laid waste. Dr. Grindley believed the estimate was "very accurate."

OTHER AREAS HARD HIT
Another area hard hit was from Carstairs to Olds, north of Calgary. Wetaskiwin area also suffered, and a district northeast of Edmonton yet undefined.

Hail damage had not been heavy in Saskatchewan and particularly light in Manitoba, Dr. Grindley stated. He receives weekly telegraphic reports from correspondents in each district of the Prairie Provinces.

RUST LOSSES HIGH
WINNIPEG, Aug. 8 (P).—Thirty per cent of the Prairie Provinces' wheat acreage, approximately 7,000,000 acres, is infested by stem rust, says the Sanford Evans statistical service weekly crop report today. The West's wheat crop has deteriorated "very badly" during the past three weeks, says the report, and early estimates of yields in Manitoba and Eastern Saskatchewan were indicative of "very serious" losses to common bread wheats.

APPOINTMENTS ARE COMPLETE

Announcement of Senate, Judicial and Other Selections Expected Tonight

OTTAWA, Aug. 8 (P).—Government appointments made today but not officially announced, are said to involve the resignation of Hon. Hugh Guthrie as Minister of Justice and his acceptance of the chairmanship of the Board of Railway Commissioners. It was also understood that the personnel of the Canadian wheat board had been practically decided upon.

It has been known for some time that John I. McFarland, who handled the Government's operation on the Winnipeg wheat market, would be chairman if his health permitted, and reports this week were that Mr. McFarland would accept the appointment.

OTHER MEMBERS
One of his colleagues, according to the best information available, will be E. B. Ramsey, chairman of the Board of Grain Commissioners, and selection of the third member is said to rest between R. D. Purdy of the Alberta wheat pools, and Dave Smith, of Winnipeg, formerly with the Canadian Co-Operative Wheat Producers Limited.

Following a meeting of the Cabinet Council this afternoon, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett said considerable progress had been made with selections of appointees for the numerous senior, judicial and administrative vacancies. He expressed the belief that he would be in a position to make a general announcement tomorrow night, after securing approval of the Governor-General, who is in residence in Quebec.

MARCHERS MAKE CAMP IN OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Aug. 8 (P).—Some 450 "On-to-Ottawa" trekkers, mostly from Toronto, tonight slept in the open on the circus grounds of Plouffe Park, in the West End of the city.

The women, twenty-five in number, are crowded into two small tents. The men, though, are resting on hay, straw, blankets and coats. An Ottawa police report they were unable to secure necessary tents from the National Defence Department. The night was warm and clear.

Tomorrow, a delegation will attempt to secure an appointment with Prime Minister R. B. Bennett. The body spent the evening quietly on the circus grounds, after arriving opposite the Parliament Buildings.

SEVEN DIE IN PLANE CRASH

Italian Cabinet Minister and Famous Explorer Among Victims of Tragedy

ROME, Aug. 8 (P).—Seven Italians, including a Cabinet Minister and a famous explorer, were killed last night in an airplane crash on the Egyptian Desert while on an inspection flight to Eritrea, East Africa.

Three passengers and four members of the crew of the commercial plane met death in the disaster, which did not become known until today.

They included Luigi Razza, Minister of Public Works, who had made a brilliant rise to become one of Mussolini's chief lieutenants, and Raimondo Franchetti, the explorer.

OTHER VICTIMS NAMED
A London dispatch said Vincenzo Minari, an Italian Consul, and Kajor Raffaele Botani, the pilot, were among the other victims.

Concern over the failure of the plane to arrive at Massawa, Eritrea, led to a search for it today by British Royal Air Force pilots and the wreckage was finally found.

Razza's mission in Africa, the Propaganda Ministry said, was connected entirely with civil works.

RECENTLY APPOINTED
Razza was one of Mussolini's young men brought to the forefront by a recent order of Il Duce's "changing the guard" of Italian administrators. He was made Minister of Public Works last January 24. He was forty-three years old.

Previously he had served as a Parliamentary Deputy from Val d'Aosta, and was a journalist who had served time on Mussolini's Popolo d'Italia and numerous other newspapers. While a youth he became a Fascist and participated in the famous march on Rome.

An official communique tonight said the plane, designed for use in civil service in East Africa, took off from the airport.

BANISHED FROM ITALY BY DUCE

Correspondent Given Three Hours to Leave Rome for Displeasing Premier

NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (P).—David Darrah, The Chicago Tribune's Rome correspondent who was summarily banished from Italy because his dispatches displeased Premier Mussolini, returned today with Mrs. Darrah.

"I was given only three hours to get out of Rome," he said. "I was not permitted to go to my office or to my home, nor to communicate with our embassy. My wife joined me in Paris."

DO NOT WANT WAR
Darrah said the Italian people do not want war with Ethiopia, adding that if Mussolini's programme fit it will be his finish as a dictator.

"He would like to get out of it if he could without losing prestige," the newspaperman said of Mussolini. "I think he didn't realize that the British Government would take such a firm stand."

"I don't know where the money is coming from. I think they have to pay for it (the war) by inflation."

Masons and Veterans Are Now Treated as Enemies Of the New German Rule

The Colonist Delivered in Mexico in Less Than Sixteen Hours

RAPID delivery of the daily newspaper is the aim of The Colonist's circulation department, but when a copy of yesterday's edition was delivered in Mexico before the day was out, a new record for speedy dispatch from this city to that country was established. When Frank Kurtz, twenty-year-old aviator, seeking a junior three-flag flight record, took off from Lansdowne field just after 4 o'clock, he took with him a copy of the day's edition for delivery to a newspaper office in Tijuana. Less than sixteen hours after the paper was off the press it was dropped from the plane at Agua Caliente with the request that it be delivered immediately to its destination a mile away.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 8 (P).—Frank Kurtz, of Los Angeles, circled over Agua Caliente, Mexico, at 6:45 o'clock tonight, less than fourteen hours after leaving Victoria, in quest of a Canada-to-Mexico junior flying record. He returned to San Diego and landed at the municipal airport, intending to spend the night here.

TAKES OFF FOR SOUTH AFRICA

Campbell Black Leaves England on First of Series of Speed Dashes

LONDON, Aug. 8 (P).—Campbell Black, co-pilot in the plane which won last Fall's England-to-Melbourne Air Derby, hopped off from Hatfield Airfield tonight in the first of a series of spectacular long-distance flights. Later he plans to attempt a flight to Canada and return.

J. H. G. McArthur accompanied him today as co-pilot in a super-streamlined silver and blue Comet plane, especially built for the flights. It has twin 200-horsepower motors with a cruising speed of 220 miles per hour.

Black hopes to reach Capetown Saturday, after stops for refueling at Cairo and Klumun, and start the return flight after twenty-four hours for rest and inspection of the engine.

His second hop and return will be from London to Canada, and the third from London to Hong Kong via Rangoon and Singapore, both before Fall.

AYLSHAM, Sask., Aug. 8 (P).—The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Synnott is a tough little lad. While berry-picking with his parents he fell over a sixty-foot river embankment, but escaped with slight bruises.

The State's worst flood in twenty-two years has exacted a toll of at least two lives and one missing, forced hundreds of families to vacate their homes, wiped out miles of highways and railroads, destroyed scores of bridges and caused heavy damage to rich farmlands.

It turned out he was a new tenant and had found the ammunition in his house. He took them to the police station, walking warily with his dangerous burden through the thronged streets.

GORGE TAKES YOUNG LIFE

Edward Haut Drowned Trying to Save Companion After Canoe Upsets

Edward Haut, fifteen years old, 3697 Elliston Avenue, lost his life in the Gorge Narrows shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon when a canoe in which he was paddling with a companion overturned in the swift current. The body had not been recovered at 10 o'clock last night when Esquimalt and Saanich police ceased dragging operations until today.

The name of young Haut's companion could not be ascertained. He was saved partly through the efforts of the drowned youth and Jack Foy, 519 Northwest Avenue, who dived off the Gorge Bridge and brought the boy to safety.

AIDED COMPANION
The tragedy was witnessed by several persons who say that young Haut gave assistance to his companion and apparently became exhausted and sank out of sight. Mr. Foy, seeing the plight of the unknown youth, plunged from the bridge and effected the rescue. A number of persons, within ten minutes, dived into the water in an effort to locate young Haut, but were unsuccessful. Dragging operations were started at 2:30 o'clock and were continued until 10 o'clock.

According to reports to police authorities, the two boys were paddling through the Narrows in the direction of Craigflower Bridge. There was a strong current running through the Narrows at the time and the frail craft capsized. Police stated last night they had been unable to secure the name of young Haut's companion.

PRISONERS TOO MANY FOR JAIL
Freight Train Riders Given Prison Sentences in Calgary Police Court
CALGARY, Aug. 8 (P).—The names of many transients were on police court dockets tonight, awaiting a hearing on charges of illegal freight train riding.

Several men, some of them alleged to have been members of a gang that halted a train near Golden, B.C., by greasing the rails, were given jail sentences here today. Five others, taken from the trains at Banff, were sentenced to prison terms there.

JAILS FILL UP
Authorities tonight had a problem to solve. Jail accommodation was limited, and it was reliably reported that consideration was being given to reopening a wartime internment camp at Banff to house the scores of prisoners. The provincial jail at Lethbridge was filled to capacity and there was only room for a few more men at Fort Saskatchewan.

A total of thirty men were in Calgary police court today. All received jail sentences ranging from three to twenty-one days. More are scheduled to appear in court tomorrow.

ETHIOPIA BELIEVED LOOKING TO ORIENT FOR WAR MUNITIONS
Official to Visit Japan Shortly on Secret Mission—Mussolini Gives Orders for Strict Secrecy in Military Manoeuvres
ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 8 (P).—Development in the Italo-Ethiopian dispute lent strength today to the growing belief that Emperor Haile Selassie is turning to the Orient for munitions the rest of the world thus far has denied him.

Daba Birro, a former Foreign Office official, will leave soon for Japan on an unannounced secret mission which was believed connected with getting credit for munitions and foodstuffs for Ethiopia's forces.

Coupled with this development was a report officially confirmed in Tokyo that Japan would shortly establish a legation here.

All the War Ministry's available supplies were doled out to troops passing through Addis Ababa a fortnight ago. Other troops are being concentrated outside the capital, while Haile Selassie and his courtiers desperately comb the world for credit and equipment.

Five Killed and 200 Injured in Exchange of Gun-fire Between Guardsmen and Marine Workers Protesting Pay Cuts—More Than Fifty Arrested, Including Municipal Councillors

Merchant Marine Workers Persuaded to End Strike

PARIS, Aug. 9 (P).—Five persons were reported killed and 200 injured in prolonged rioting through the narrow streets of Toulon that did not quiet down until long after midnight, when infantrymen and mobile guards closed all roads leading from the city.

The rioting grew out of demonstrations late yesterday by maritime workers protesting pay cuts decreed in Premier Laval's new economy laws. The Toulon disorders were the worst of a series which occurred in many French seaport cities.

Trans-Atlantic liners were tied up and threats were hurled against Government officials as the maritime workers continued on strike in Le Havre and paraded in demonstrations at other ports.

NEW DECREE LAWS
The Toulon riots reached their climax as Premier Laval and his Cabinet completed eighty-three new decree laws "for economic recovery."

Two were known dead in the fighting, while the bodies of three others were reported by spectators to have been carried off by rioters.

INDIAN BRAVES GIVE TROUBLE

Fifteen Mohave Tribesmen In Jail—Further Clashes Feared in Arizona
YUMA, Ariz., Aug. 8 (P).—A drawing for the forbidden "fire-water" and a belief that the Government's new home rule plan exempted them from arrest by white officers were blamed by Sheriff T. H. Newman today for an Indian "uprising" at Parker Saturday night.

Fifteen Mohave tribesmen, detained in jail—nine here and six at Parker—while Federal and county officers continued their investigation into the outbreak, the first serious trouble between the red men and whites in Arizona in nearly twenty years.

GRIM WARNING GIVEN
A human skull mounted on a stick, found yesterday on the property of Constable J. A. Joplin, was regarded by white officers as a grim warning that the feeling among the Mohave braves had not yet subsided.

The Saturday night trouble developed when deputy sheriff Jim Washington arrested a Mohave tribesman on an intoxication charge.

RELEASE PRISONER
About thirty braves, armed with clubs and stones, attacked Washington in the main street of Parker and freed the prisoner.

Constable Joplin went to Washington's aid. A squad of deputy sheriffs from Yuma went to Parker Sunday and restored order. The fifteen Indians were taken into custody.

"No government is being formed in Canada right now, and none will be formed until after an election. I prefer to wait until I am asked, before I answer that question."

Turning Ships Sold For Scrapping Into Transport Vessels

Two Well-Known Canadian Liners Among Those Purchased by Italian Ship-Breakers—Now Reported Being Pressed Into Military Service

LONDON, Aug. 8. (P.)—A special correspondent of The Star tonight reported that Premier Mussolini, who has for some time been organizing a large fleet of troopships for his African programme by commandeering Italian vessels and buying British and other foreign liners, has now acquired two well-known Canadian Pacific liners—the Minnedosa and the Melita. Three German vessels also have been purchased.

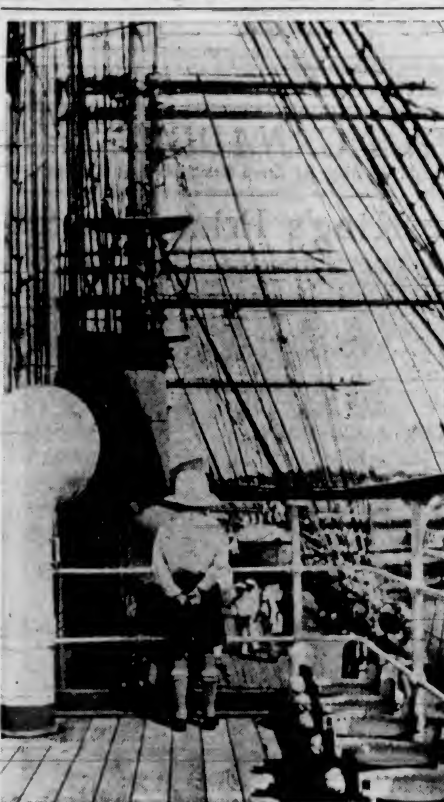

The Canadian Pacific vessels were sold in London early in the year to a Genoese firm of ship-breakers. Soon afterwards three North German Lloyd craft, the 11,000-ton Sierra Ventana and the Sierra Cordoba, and the 9,000-ton Werra, were also bought, ostensibly for breaking up.

A few days ago, however, all three vessels were transferred to the Italian Government, while policies were underwritten at Lloyd's for Mediterranean and Red Sea risks only to the extent of $500,000 for each ship except the Werra, which was $400,000.

KNOWN AS "BRIDE SHIP"
The Melita, built in 1918, 15,000 tons, for many years was known as the "bride ship" because for a long time before the depression she carried many thousands of newlyweds going to start homes in Canada. The Minnedosa is an older vessel, but it is estimated that each could carry more than 2,000 troops. An official of the Canadian Pacific here said the vessels were sold before any trouble appeared on the African scene. They were distinctly obsolete and were sold on the definite understanding they were to be dismantled and broken up, he added.

The earliest horses which were the primitive ancestors of the American horse, were brought over by Cortez for the campaign in his conquest of Mexico, begun in 1519.

More Than 1,000 Entries Expected For Poultry Show At Willows Fair

William Waker of New Westminster, and Charles Good of Vancouver, have been appointed judges of the poultry show to be held at the Willows Exhibition, September 7 to 14. It was announced yesterday by W. H. Meares, secretary of the B.C. Agricultural Association.

More than 1,000 entries were received in the poultry division last year, but with many new events added to the programme this year a substantial increase in the entries is expected.

The American Poultry Show is offering a gold medal and other prizes in connection with this exhibition, in addition to the prizes awarded by the B.C. Agricultural Association.

This year several children's classes have been added, including an individual judging competition and the Boys' and Girls' Poultry Club Class.

CANADA NOTES BUSINESS RISE

Official Statistics Show Impressive Upturn in First Six Months

OTTAWA, Aug. 8. (P.)—Canadian business has made an impressive comeback during the first part of this year.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports that the index of the physical volume of business, based on forty-five factors covering production and distribution, averaged 98.8 during the first six months of 1935, compared with 63.3 in the same period of 1933.

The bureau states that the increase of 41 per cent in a comprehensive index of this kind is a good indication of the satisfactory resumption of operations since the low point of the depression.

An improvement in the price structure also was indicated by an advance in the official index based on 567 commodities. The average during the first part of 1935 was 72.1 against 64.7 in the same period of 1933, a gain of 11.3 per cent.

RELATIVE STABILITY
"One of the hopeful signs of the business horizon since the early months of 1934 has been the relative stability of commodity prices," the bureau states. "The stabilization, if maintained, will contribute an effective stimulus toward the restoration of business confidence."

The financial background has brightened considerably since the early months of 1933. The resumption of industrial operations and the higher level of commodity prices have favored the recovery of Canadian corporations so far this year. Common stock prices, reflecting the improved outlook, recorded an advance of more than 60 per cent. The index averaged 88.2 in first half of 1935 against 43.2 in the same period of 1933.

BOND FINANCING AT HIGH RECORD

July Furnished New Peak for Bonds in Last Five-Year Period

TORONTO, Aug. 8. (P.)—The July 1935 total of new Canadian Governmental and municipal bond financing records a new high level for the month in the past five years, according to the compilation of Wood, Gundy & Company.

Dominion of Canada Treasury Bills comprise $20,000,000 of the total, $11 million of $20,000,000 having been sold July 12 at a 1.385 cent basis to the Dominion and a second issue of $9,000,000 sold July 30 on a 1.23 per cent basis.

Included in the total for the month is the issue of $4,000,000 Province of Saskatchewan 4 per cent bonds, due 1960, offered to yield 4.65 per cent, and the issue of $2,600,000 Montreal Metropolitan Commission 2 1/2 per cent two-year bonds offered to yield 2.90 per cent and 4.21 per cent, respectively.

The total for the first seven months of 1935 was $322,841,772, compared with $156,658,283 in the same period of 1934 and $153,230,529 in the same months of 1933.

As long ago as before 1850, the saxophone was officially adopted as an instrument in use in French military bands.

SETTLE DISPUTE ABOUT CUSTOMS

Poland and Free City of Danzig Reach Friendly Agreement and Sign Accord

FREE CITY OF DANZIG, Aug. 8. (P.)—The customs disagreement between Poland and the Free City of Danzig, threatening serious international complications, was settled amicably today with the signing of a four-point accord by representatives of the two governments.

Under the agreement Danzig will cancel a decree permitting German goods to enter the Nazi-controlled Free City without payment of duty. Poland will revoke an order prohibiting the collection of Polish customs fees in Danzig on imports destined for Poland. Polish zlotis will be used for freight and passengers' transportation when destined beyond Danzig's borders. Polish members of the Danzig port council will use zlotis exclusively in financial management of the port.

STATES BUSINESS IS MARKING TIME

Eastern Leaders Will Not Move Until After Federal Election, Coal Merchant Says

Businesses in the East, big and small, are marking time and business leaders will not know which way to turn until after the Federal election, A. R. Gibson, vice-president of the Conger, Lehigh & Gasoline Company of Toronto, stated yesterday at the Empress Hotel.

Accompanied by his daughter, Miss Marjory Gibson, Mr. Gibson has been enjoying a tour of the Pacific Northwest during the last few days. They plan to leave today for Vancouver, from where they will sail for Alaska.

Mr. Gibson is an ardent golfer and enjoys yachting, being a member of several Eastern clubs. He explained that in Ontario, golfers and yachtsmen were not as fortunate as those living here, as the Easterners had to travel miles from one sport to the other.

FINDS SIGNS OF SACRIFICE

Geologist Thinks Humans May Have Been Burned In Ancient Rites

ELLENSBURG, Wash., Aug. 8 (AP)—A possibility that human sacrifice was practised in burial rites of certain Indians along the Columbia River in the Vantage district was revealed today by Quinn Blackburn, Federal geologist in charge of development work at Ginko State Park.

An Indian grave containing two skeletons, Blackburn said, was discovered during work in a petrified forest in the park. One skeleton was found at a depth of two feet below the surface, in a bed of charcoal and burned Indian beads. The second skeleton was below this and showed no evidence of having been burned.

Blackburn said he believed it possible the favorite wife or slave of the dead Indian was burned, dead or alive, upon the grave of the master as a sacrifice to minister to the needs of the dead in the "happy hunting ground."

He estimated that the grave was not more than a century or two old.

CREMATORY BURIAL

Earliest records of the Pacific Coast, contained in the Chinese accounts of the return of Hoel Shin from the land of Fu-sang, recount the custom of cremation burial.

Excavations made into the mounds on the Southern section of Vancouver Island confirm that the charred bones and ashes of persons cremated were ceremoniously interred by the race of mound builders who preceded the Indian race known to the white man.

James Deans, as early as 1871, made a careful examination of a number of these burial mounds near Victoria and found that it was the custom to cremate the dead and deposit the ashes beneath a flat stone, over which was constructed a mound, four or five feet in height.

Hoel Shin, in relating to the Chinese court historian on his return to the celestial kingdom in 499, the customs of the people of Fu-sang, on this side of the Pacific, told of hot native deities who were cremated to die were cremated and their ashes deposited in a hollow. This method of burial tallies with that of the mound builders as revealed by inspection of the mummy mounds of Vancouver Island.

GUARD BOUNDARY AGAINST PLAGUE

Pests Spreading Towards Canada After Devastating Large Areas In United States

SAINT JOHN, N.B., Aug. 8 (AP)—Fifteen traps, baited with perfume, have been set in Saint John because Japanese beetles are spreading toward Canada after ravaging orchards, vineyards and gardens in United States. At many points along the international boundary line entomological agents are watching to prevent the entry of the pests, which might cost Canadian agriculturalists millions of dollars.

Shed like lampshades and baited with fragrant geraniol, the traps here have yet to catch a beetle, and this is regarded as an indication that the Oriental pests have not reached this area. Geraniol, a lure devised by the United States Department of Agriculture, emanates the same flower-like odor as female beetles. Thus a male beetle near one of these traps is apt to sniff his way to doom.

BUG EAT BUG

On the principle of bug eat bug, entomologists in the States are increasing the campaign of extermination by pitting wasplike parasites against their deadly enemies, the hard-shelled, tank-like beetles. The winged insects were imported from Japan for the special purpose of having them feed on beetles.

Vigilance has been increased by Canadian officials, who remember a previous disastrous experience. Hundreds of miles of corn land were laid waste in Ontario by the European corn borer, said to have been imported in a bale of broom corn. As a result Canadian farmers had to turn to South Africa and the Argentine for a greatly increased proportion of their feed corn.

Young Girl Sets Spelling Record

ATWOOD, Ont., Aug. 8 (AP)—There is considerable interest these days in spelling records and the rural schools can set up some standards as well as the larger schools.

Marjorie Hymers, daughter of Mr. Mrs. Leslie Hymers, of Dorset, S.S. No. 6, is a member of the senior third class there, and from September of last year until June of this year, her spelling was absolutely correct. She also has an average of 99 per cent in several other subjects.

The other day an ex-soldier expressed an opinion of what the next war will be like.

"It will be terrible," he said. "The safest place will be in the army, and the soldiers will spend their spare time knitting comforts for the harassed civilian population."

MAYOR FAVORS SCHOOL PLAN

Would Have Government Go Farther and Take Over All Social Services

Mayor David Leeming sees in the recommendations made by the B. K. of Vancouver, as technical adviser to the educational commission of the province, agreement in the main with the conclusions reached at the Vancouver conference which he attended this week. He is, therefore, in accord with the proposal. At the same time he would urge upon the Provincial authorities going still farther and recommending the taking over of the cost of all other social services now borne by the municipalities and which are proving so onerous.

"I was a member of the educational committee and I strongly recommend the adoption of the plan of educational financing suggested by Mayor King," said the Mayor, when asked for his opinion upon the suggested scheme outlined by Mayor King.

GENERAL BURDEN

The Mayor takes the position that the people generally in the province should carry the load involved in educational lines that are provided, and it should not be made a burden upon the one class of property owners as is now largely the case. Major King's scheme for the gradual assumption of the cost by the Provincial authorities would be met by an income tax or such other tax as is deemed fair and equitable, but the burden would in any event be cast upon the whole of the people of the province.

His Worship says that action taken along this line would do more to restore prosperity than anything else. It would mean, he believes, a restoration of confidence and credit, and that would follow confidence and credit. The beneficial results would bring about a restoring of the hoped for boom of work and wages more surely and generally than any other method that could be devised.

"Investment in real property is greater than any other investment and affects a wider number of people than are affected by any other form of investment," the Mayor points out.

SCHOOL BOARD HEAD

W. C. Moresby, K.C., chairman of the Victoria School Board, when asked for his opinion with regard to the recommendations made by Mayor H. B. King, was not in a position to give a definite answer.

Mr. Moresby said that the matters dealt with in the report were far-reaching in their effects and until he should have the opportunity of going much more fully into the whole subject by a study of the report in detail, it would be very unwise to venture an off-hand opinion. The general question of taxation would have to be looked into in relation to the suggested added taxes which the report favored calling into existence, and this would have to be considered in reaching a ripe conclusion.

UNIQUE SERVICE ATTRACTS CROWD

Hymns and Sermon Heard Once a Year at Old New Brunswick Church

SUSSEX, N.B., Aug. 8 (AP)—The fifth annual memorial service for deceased members of former congregations has been held in old St. Paul's Church at Londonderry, and another year will elapse before worshippers again gather in the little structure.

Ven. Archdeacon H. A. Cody, Saint John, preached at the last service amid a scene in sharp contrast with that of eighty years ago, when the church was the hub of the heart of a thriving country community. Cars blocked the road once trod by oxen. Silks and fine gowns were in the seats of pews first worn smooth by homespun. The old farms and homesteads have long been abandoned, and the nearest house is now five miles from where St. Paul's steeple rises above the trees.

WIDESPREAD INFLUENCE

"As in that instance where Mary announced our Saviour's feet with precious oil, there is no waste," said Archdeacon Cody. "Although the congregation is gone and their descendants scattered far and wide, the influence of this old church is widespread also."

The church was a dividing line between things of the past and the present. "The candle has become an electric light, the ox cart an automobile, the news of Waterloo came in six weeks and now the King speaks to us all in the twinkling of an eye—but still the great principles of truth, honor, justice and freedom remain unchanged. These things are eternal. How thankful we must be of our advantages in Canada."

Spontaneous singing, without accompaniment, was a feature of the unique service.

Vancouver Alderman Claims Charges on Relief Matters Mainly Correct

VANCOUVER, Aug. 8 (AP)—Vancouver aldermen engaged in heated sessions today as the recent investigation of the city relief department and longshore labor troubles were discussed.

Alderman L. D. McDonald, author of charges which led to the relief investigation, told the finance committee his resignation as chairman of the relief committee and as alderman had been suggested following Commissioner Paul McD. Kerr's inquiry report exonerating Relief Officer W. R. Bone.

"I shall not resign," he shouted. "Bone has been cleared, but somebody in this council is grossly at fault. I shall have plenty to say later about that report. Although Bone is exonerated, the Kerr report supports me to the hilt. It says $50,000 annually can be saved in administration of the relief department."

TO LAY OTHER CHARGES

Alderman McDonald declared he intends to lay other charges. "And I do not care who is involved—no matter what alderman," he added. Later he charged one of his witnesses had been interfered with.

"Name your alderman," Alderman H. J. De Graves demanded. From all parts of the council chamber came demands that the alderman be named.

NO ORDINARY DISPUTE

During discussion of a resolution that the council ask for Dominion intervention in the Vancouver waterfront strike which was passed, Mayor G. G. McGeer stated it was one thing to settle an ordinary labor dispute, but quite another to settle a dispute inspired by Communists, whose aim, he said, was disorganization of business generally.

Alderman McDonald declared he did not like the mayor's tone and asked if anybody who went contrary to the "McGeer programme" was to be classed as a Communist.

PROMISE AND PERFORMANCE

It is a sad task raking over the dead ashes of political promises, for it is not possible to extract from them even a spark of hope. Mr. Mackenzie King in one of his radio broadcasts said that the people were sick of political promises. His own party furnishes the reason for much of this malady.

The Liberal platform which led to attainment of office in 1921 was profigate with promises, which, had they been performed, would have obviated the necessity of similar planks being inserted in that platform upon which Mr. King is now appealing to the people. Of the 1921 promises by the Liberals, these can be recalled:

- (1) Limitation of the hours of work to an eight-hour day and a forty-eight hour week, along with a weekly day of rest at least twenty-four hours.
- (2) Abolition of child labor and limitation of labor of young persons to assure their proper education and physical development.
- (3) Abolition of sweatshops by legal standards for conditions of labor which should have due regard for the equitable economic treatment of all workers.
- (4) Industrial control to safeguard workers' interests and shape industrial policies.
- (5) Adequate insurance against unemployment, sickness, dependence in old age and other disabilities.
- (6) Steps to overcome questions of jurisdiction between the Dominion and the Provinces on these matters.
- (7) Government action to deal with the high cost of living and prevent profiteering.
- (8) Payment of a wage sufficient to maintain an adequate standard of life.
- (9) Enforcement of laws and regulations for the protection of the employed.

These were the promises, and after they were made Mr. Mackenzie King's Government was in power for nine years, surely a sufficiently long time to put some, at least, of the legislation fore-cast into operation. The fact of the matter is that these promises were not implemented. They were just a part of the long roll call of pious hopes that mark Liberal propaganda, intended to win votes, but not intended as a part and parcel of the policies of Liberalism. In the face of this record of "piecemeal promises," Mr. King expects the people of Canada to trust him hereafter to do what he did not do when he had the opportunity. The paradox of the situation is that it was Mr. R. B. Bennett and a Conservative Government which implemented most of the Liberal promises after the Liberals themselves showed no disposition to do so, although nine years in office. As a commentary on the foregoing summary of Liberal policy as defined in 1921, the following is a part of what was accomplished by the Bennett Government.

- (1) Provided for an eight-hour day and a forty-eight hour week.
- (2) Provided for one day of rest in seven.
- (3) Limited hours on Government contracts to a forty-four hour week and ensured fair wages.
- (4) Prohibited unfair advertisements, child labor and sweatshops.
- (5) Provided unemployment insurance with provision for national health insurance.
- (6) Provided minimum wages.
- (7) Prohibited unfair merchandising practices.
- (8) Eliminated unfair practices by combines.
- (9) Promoted and safeguarded fair trade practices.
- (10) Introduced increased taxation on high incomes.
- (11) Provided employment through relief work construction.
- (12) Provided employment through the development of national resources under an Economic Council.
- (13) Provided employment through rehabilitation.
- (14) Encouraged home-building through a $10,000,000 treasury grant.

MR. STEVENS AND THE BANKS

Mr. Stevens, like the Fat Boy in Pickwick, is trying to make our flesh creep, and for that purpose is using figures taken from the Canada Year Book compiled in the department over which he formerly presided. As might be expected, the record of the "depression years" contains a good many depressing figures. For his purpose Mr. Stevens selected some unpleasant facts about the incomes of certain classes of the community. It appears, on Mr. Stevens' authority, that in the last five years the income of farmers has declined 60 per cent, of merchants 50 per cent, of manufacturers 40 per cent, and of industries based on natural resources 20 per cent.

This is in itself discouraging enough, but Mr. Stevens knows that it is not exactly news. The public have seen these figures frequently in recent years. Mr. Stevens, however, belabored himself of a device by which these unhappy facts might be brought home to his hearers with greater force and effect, the old reliable device of contrast. Accordingly he pointed out that the corresponding figures for banking and other financial interests represented, not a loss, but a gain of 30 per cent.

Mr. Stevens' motive is obvious, naked, and unashamed. He is not only to make our flesh creep, but also to arouse hostility against the banking and financial interests. What inference does Mr. Stevens wish us to draw from his figures? Without actually saying so, Mr. Stevens continues to suggest that the banking and other financial interests, in making a success of their business during the period under review, have somehow done an injury to the farming and mercantile and other interests, and have profited from their misfortunes. He would hardly go so far as to say that our banking and other financial institutions ought to be regarded as enemies of society prospering upon the misfortunes of others. He knows very well that if our banking institutions were to fail, as American banks failed a few years ago, the sufferers would be, not merely a numerically small group of "financial" people, but, far more important, a very large number which would include an impressive proportion of the inhabitants of Canada.

No one knows better than Mr. Stevens how many Canadians are directly, financially, and vitally interested in the soundness of the banks.

He knows that there are no less than four and a half million bank deposits in Canadian banks. These are the property of people in very moderate circumstances. These deposits are very moderate in amount and average about $413. Four and a half millions of people in Canada thus have an excellent reason for wishing Canadian banks to prosper. They believe in maintaining a sound banking system and they know that they have at their service a body of competent bankers who can be depended upon to invest safely the money entrusted to them by the depositors. Mr. Stevens knows that 90 per cent of the money handled by the banks is obtained from these very depositors and held in trust for them by the bankers.

Nevertheless Mr. Stevens is well content to create the impression that the successful management of the affairs of the banks, the care and safekeeping of the savings of the people, and the profitable investment of funds deposited with them in trust in these four and a half million deposit accounts, are, in some mysterious way, blameworthy, something to be deplored and denounced. Taking his words at their face value, it would appear that Mr. Stevens would have been almost as well pleased if the banks had made bad loans, had lost money on the year's business, and had consequently been unable to pay any interest on these modest savings accounts, or perhaps, even to return the principal sums entrusted to them for investment by their depositors. Of course if the matter were pressed home Mr. Stevens would admit that he is pleased to know that the savings of four and a half million Canadians are well taken care of. Why then does he hold up our financial institutions to public hatred?

Mr. Stevens, in taking this line in his campaign speeches, has descended, for the moment, to the level of the radical agitator, the professional fault-finder, the political back-seat driver, who, though he may occasionally be of use in furnishing timely information, is only too apt to offer untimely advice and thus acquire the reputation of a false alarm.

THE COMMON COLD

Sir Kingsley Wood, the British Minister of Health, expresses the hope that the next decade will find us with something in the nature of a permanent cure for the common cold. Such would prove a very striking feat in medicine, and, as Sir Kingsley says, the discoverer of such a cure would be entitled to any honor that could be conferred upon him. In commenting on the hope expressed, Dr. J. H. Orton alludes to the complexity of the common cold and ventures the opinion that it is certainly bound up with rate and range of temperature change in the environment. Moreover, he believes that it is not restricted to man or vertebrates. Research has shown that many animals, shell-fish, flat-worms and plants are injured in some—as yet unknown—way by rapid or large temperature changes, especially under certain conditions.

There is a possibility, says Dr. Orton, "that a concerted attack from every possible angle on the fundamental problem of the reactions of all kinds of living things to various rates and ranges of temperature change may provide information which will hasten the complete understanding of the common cold." He suggests the establishment of fellowships for studies on the physiological effects of varying rates and ranges of temperature change on any living organism, and small grants for aid in research. All this, however, does not seem to lead to the instant cure for which Sir Kingsley Wood hopes. It is one thing to discover a cause and quite another to quell its effects immediately, especially in the matter of reactions in the human body.

More Taxes or Less?

It is this is the silly season, it is well to recall that B.C. municipalities have already levied $8,000,000 in taxation that remains uncollected, and that the province this spring put on a special tax on the property of the province on arrears of ordinary income tax, then running a cool million behind. Is it, after all, scientific taxation or a little scientific "un-taxation" that is required?—S.G.

Grey clouds no more are tinted with the colors of the sun: The Day of Judgment sounds its faithful trumpet. The dizzy, petty pace of the chaotic world is run; No more we gather round the parish pump. Out With the Druggists

Lobby gossip overheard at the Canadian Pharmaceutical Convention. If British Columbia enforces state health insurance, what assurance have the people that the vast fund accumulated in time will not be diverted to other uses? Yes, these conventions accomplish a lot of good. I've got in more golf and fishing this week than I usually have time for in a year. The two firms I travel for have maintained wages all through the depression without cutting. No, don't mention my name. I'm supposed to be traveling through Alberta right now. This is my first trip to salt water. I didn't expect to find a beautiful city existed in British Columbia.—G.B.

He's Moving Right Along

Joe Louis, sensational negro battler, known as the "Brown Bomber," took little more than two minutes to polish off "Kingfish" Levinsky, the ex-fish peddler, Wednesday evening at Chicago, to add another K.O. to his already long string of victories. With youth, punching power and apparently all that it needs to make a good fighter, Louis appears headed for better things, maybe the heavyweight championship of the world. What does the world hold for this amazing youngster? Will the color line be drawn to prevent him from really getting to the top? Time will tell.—S.T.

Love's Labor Unrewarded

Early last May the Victoria Blue Ribbons captured the Dominion basketball championship by defeating Assumption College, Eastern titleholders from Windsor, Ontario, after a hectic series which went the limit. Speaking to some of the players in the other day, they told me that the Canadian Basketball Association has not given them a medal, trophy, not even a crest to show that they are rulers of the basketball world. The Canadian body reaped financially from the series, but the boys who drew the fans to the final have not a thing to show they won the crown in 1934-35 from official headquarters. The officials of the Blue Ribbons offset the actions of the "big bosses" by giving each player a swell jacket with a fine crest on it, which tells in a few words their biggest achievement last season.—J.D.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of August 9, 1885)

New Churches Built.—The new Presbyterian Church at Port and Langley, British Columbia, was almost completed. It is expected that they will be opened, public worship being held on the 10th inst. The Rev. Alex. Dunn, minister of the Victoria church, was the guest of honor at the opening ceremony. The building committee were very much gratified by the liberal and cordial reception given to their appeal for aid by their fellow Presbyterians in Victoria and New Westminster, and are anxious that they may be able to erect a church free of debt.

Marine Notes.—A small whale, known as New Bedford, was seen in the ice and two persons were lost. W. Robert, of New Bedford, first officer, and Thomas, of the same place, third officer. The steamer Canada, of San Francisco, was seen in the ice, but the vessel was saved. The steamer Canada, also of San Francisco, was stranded in the ice, but the vessel was saved. The steamer Canada, also of San Francisco, was stranded in the ice, but the vessel was saved.

SECTION 98 AND LIBERALISM

Sir.—Mr. Mackenzie King has definitely announced that he would repeal Section 98 of the Criminal Code something that the Communist Party has persistently demanded and which, to their credit, Mr. Bennett and the Minister of Justice have refused to countenance. I doubt whether twenty-five per cent of the electors have any idea what the section is. It is the surest legal weapon for the suppression of Communism.

Mr. William H. Price who was Attorney-General for Ontario at the time of the prosecutions at Toronto of Timothy Buck and others in 1931, says: "It has been frequently said by ill-informed persons or deliberately untrue persons that Section 98 of the Criminal Code is an attack on the rights of citizens to free speech. That statement is a fabrication. The object of the section is to protect existing institutions against legitimate criticism but to protect citizens against revolution and civil war, against the fire and sword of armed rebellion." Mr. Price is a Conservative.

Every Liberal candidate should be required to answer two questions: 1. Are you in favor of the repeal of Section 98 of the Criminal Code? If so, why? 2. Will you use your influence as all times to suppress Communism? And the support given to him should be governed by his answers. The following letter, signed "Elizabeth Horsfall," which appeared in The Vancouver Daily Province on the 2nd inst. is well worth reading.

CLERGY AND COMMUNISM

"Editor Province.—Are ministers of the United Church supposed to be abdicating the cause of Christianity or Communism? 'I ask because I observe that the Rev. P. Davidson, of Riverview United Church, has been taking an active part in the propaganda of the Communist Party. He is a Transport Workers of Canada. He also signs himself as a member of the executive of the Fellowship for a Christian Social Order. 'I may draw the attention of leaders and members of the United Church of Canada to the following facts: 1. The Longshoremen and Water Transport Workers of Canada is a subsidiary of the Workers' Unity League. 2. The Workers' Unity League is the trade union department of the Communist Party. 3. The Communist Party advocates the overthrow of the present government. Its unions are called 'Revolutionary Trade Unions.' 4. Communist Party's objective is armed revolution for the overthrow of the present government. 5. The Communist Party is a theistic, anti-religious, and anti-Christian; one of its chief publications is called The Bolshevik, which literally means 'The Godless.' 6. The Fellowship for a Christian Social Order, while little known in Canada, is supported in the United States by the Communists as a cat's paw agency for teaching Communism in Christian terminology. 7. 'If Mr. Davidson and one or two other United Church ministers who appear to have been associated with him in these activities believe the Communist Party is a threat to the Canadian people, their organization and their strike are not Communist, I would draw attention to two facts: 'Unity, the monthly paper issued by the Workers' Unity League, 1885 in its July number the 'Longshoremen and Water Transport Workers of Canada' as one of its subsidiaries has responded to a special call for strike action issued by the Communist Party in its headquarters in February last. 'The Canadian delegates to the Communist International at Moscow boasted that the Communists had led 90 per cent of the recent strikes in Canada. 'Why, incidentally, do the Communists boast about the number of their strikes and not about the results obtained for the workers? Isn't obvious, in view of the lawlessness to which their leaders incited the longshoremen and the relief-camp workers, that they value the strikes because of the amount of disorder they can be utilized to bring about?'

"That observation, though pertinent, is a digression. 'My purpose in writing this is through you to ask the United Church people of this city whether they prefer the clergy to assist the advancement of Communism in Canada? If so, they lend Christian countenance to a movement whose aim is to destroy religion, destroy democracy, and abolish liberty. 'I should like to know. My children have been attending a United Church Sunday school. 'ELIZABETH HORSFALL, 'Vancouver, B.C., August 2, 1935.

Also Mr. Butterfield's remarks in The Vancouver Daily Province on 5th inst. are instructive. He says:

"In the course of his fine speech on Friday, Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King mentioned among other things that it will be a part of his programme to abolish Section 98 of the Criminal Code in the interests of the British principle of free speech, and thus end the present system of arbitrary deportations. 'There is a very fine principle behind this gesture, but although I have not the section before me at the moment, I do not remember that free speech is actually arrayed against free speech insofar as that speech shall be within the rules that govern all public speaking. It merely arrays itself against much speech as in the actions that are illegal to any party. It is against force and the act of inciting to force, and as such is a very great safeguard to government and order."

W. H. BULLOCK-WEBSTER, Law Chambers, Victoria, B.C., August 8, 1935.

GASOLINE SERVICE STATION

Sir.—My attention has been called to a report of the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council appearing in The Colonist of Thursday, which stated that a contractor who had "campaigned" for the rezoning of a site was given the contract for the construction of a gasoline service station on the rezoned property, despite the fact that his tender for the work was $700 higher than that of another contractor.

If such criticism was intended to refer to the construction work being done by Luney Bros. Ltd., upon the erection of a service station, it is absolutely unfounded, and I wish to categorically and emphatically deny the implied suggestion contained in the reported remarks of the Trades and Labor Council meeting. I wish further to state: 1. That the tender submitted by Luney Bros. Ltd. was the lowest bid for the work. 2. That the application for rezoning of the property was made by the owners, who were anxious to turn a non-productive site into the revenue-producing land, enabling them to meet the taxes. 3. That Luney Bros. Ltd., nor any member of the firm did not "campaign" for the rezoning of the site. WALTER LUNEY, 1566 Hampshire Road, Victoria, B.C., August 8, 1935.

IS THIS A RECORD?

Sir.—I have a Rhode Island Red pullet hatched out on March 12, which started to lay on July 27. I would like to know if any of your readers could tell me if this is a record for this heavy breed to lay so soon. I might say that she has laid each day up to date, missing August 1. Another pullet of the same batch started the sixth day of this month. They have been fed on just scratch and table scraps, no developing mass. (MRS.) E. STEERS, Colwood, B.C., August 8, 1935.

SHOW BOAT AMATEURS

Sir.—Last night at the Show Boat, I promised, on behalf of my firm, Jameson's Electrical, Ltd., a new record as first prize in the amateur contest series now being held weekly in Victoria's new bright entertainment spot—Inner Harbor. The offer was not premature, but arose from a very genuine admiration of the splendid work being done by the Tourist Trade Development Association generally, and by Mr. T. H. Elick, its indefatigable and talented general secretary, particularly.

Nothing that has been done in Victoria for many years has earned for the citizens and Victoria more friends or wider publicity than this first step in the association's five-year plan, and every public-minded citizen of this city should get actively behind the movement, which will eventually make Victoria and Vancouver Island the paradise of the Pacific.

B.C. TIMBER IN ENGLAND

Sir.—I have read with much interest the report of an interview with Mr. W. B. Lanigan which appeared in your issue of July 5, and while I whole-heartedly endorse all that Mr. Lanigan says about the Old Country, I do think it is my duty to dissent from him and put in a few words on behalf of the exporters of the province when he comes to speak of the marketing of British Columbia products in the United Kingdom.

I had several pleasant interviews with Mr. Lanigan when he was in London, and had I known of his interest in the matter I would have been very happy to inform him where he could find Douglas fir being used. Douglas fir was employed in the building of the Cumberland Hotel, where he stayed, and he had glanced round the Southampton docks prior to his departure when he would have seen 32,000 cubic feet of rafters and 44,000 square yards of roof boarding, all of this same British Columbia timber used by the Southern Railway in its new freight and passenger sheds. Indeed, it is scarcely an exaggeration to say that Mr. Lanigan could have seen during his visit more Douglas fir being put into new houses now being built in England than it is possible to see anywhere in British Columbia. The London County Council has used it in over 50,000 houses during the past three years, and nearly all the boroughs and cities in England are using it in connection with those same alum clearance schemes, which are so marked a feature of that "stupendous building programme" to which Mr. Lanigan justly pays tribute. One firm of speculative builders in London alone used Douglas fir for the 6,000 houses which it put up last year, and it is employing it in a like number this year. There are many other firms who are building from 100 to 1,000 houses a year that use nothing else but Douglas fir.

If Mr. Lanigan had driven down Cannon Street or to Millbank, or down St. James' Street, or, in fact, along any of the new woodblock thoroughfares in the City of London, the way of New Westminster, the Borough of St. Pancras, and many other municipalities, he would have found the wheels of his tax rolling on Douglas fir. Had he attended a service in Kidderminster

Church he would have found himself sitting in Douglas fir pews, and had he patronized the dining-room of the Buxton Hotel, or dined there through the CIVIL SERVICE Supply Stores, he would have been gratified to see the notable effects produced by Douglas fir in the interior decoration of the establishment.

Mr. Lanigan's remarks that he could not find during his visit any Canadian apples. This, I suggest, is due to the fact that he came at a time when the Canadian apple season was over. Had he come a little earlier in the year he would most certainly have seen ample evidence that no small proportion of the three million barrels and boxes which Canada exported last season had found their way to the United Kingdom market, very much to the appreciation of the British public.

As to Mr. Lanigan's comment that "he could not find Canadian canned goods," he is not correct. I have seen a large quantity of Canadian canned goods in the United Kingdom, and indeed, Mr. Lanigan has only to recall the export of 142,000 hundredweight of canned salmon which Canada sent to the United Kingdom last year to realize the widespread popularity of this product in the Old Country. I would not have ventured to trespass thus far on your space, and go into so much detail, but broad generalizations are at all times unsatisfactory, and in the present instance seem to do less than justice to the labors of our exporters, who in spite of many difficulties, succeed in meeting the exacting requirements of British importers. During the past few years British Columbia House has addressed itself heartily to the task of extending the market for British Columbia products in the United Kingdom. I am fully in accord with Mr. Lanigan's desire to see more of our products marketed here. Of necessity, much of the work that we have done in this direction is anonymous. Individual firms are in a position to testify as

SENTENCED TO A LIVING DEATH

Confessed Women Murderers Sent to Prison—No Hope of Parole

CHICAGO, Aug. 8 (AP).—A "living death"—imprisonment for 180 years each—was the penalty imposed by Judge Cornelius Harrington today on two middle-aged women who plotted and executed the "sister murder" of Ervin Lang.

Mrs. Blanche Dunkel, forty-four-year-old mother-in-law and mistress of the victim, and Mrs. Evelyn Smith, forty-six, former burlesque dancer, termed by the judge as "partners in one of the most callous crimes in the history of the city," heard him announce their fates in contrasting moods typical of their recent attitudes.

Death, Judge Harrington said to the defendants, "would be a merciful end for you." He added that under the penalty he decreed both would be "suffering a living death."

SOLITARY CONFINEMENT

He directed that on each July—the anniversary of the strangling of the twenty-eight-year-old grocery clerk, whose attentions to a younger woman aroused the furious jealousy of the mother of his dead wife—the women were to be placed in solitary confinement. He also ordered that Mrs. Dunkel might not be paroled until she had attained the age of 104 years, nor Mrs. Smith until she had reached 106 years.

Mrs. Dunkel confessed she hired Mrs. Smith to slay her son-in-law for $500, of which she paid $100.

WAR WOULD BE ON BIG SCALE

Italy-Ethiopia Conflict May Involve Other Countries Says George Samworth

"If Italy persists in pushing the issue with Ethiopia, the ensuing conflict will be greater than may be realized. The natives are fierce and brave fighters, know their country well and can make great use of the wild animals throughout Ethiopia. Not only will Italy find herself involved in one of the fiercest campaigns of recent years, but may be forced to battle in several other parts of Africa, Asia Minor and India."

George Samworth, who organized the first medical supply store in Addis Ababa, capital city of Abyssinia, in 1919, reviewed the present trouble and predicted future developments during an interview at the Empress Hotel. Mr. Samworth spent six months in the country for the Abyssinia Corporation, and during that time made an intense study of the natives and the country. He is now engaged in business in Vancouver.

FLYER COMPLETES THREE-FLAG TRIP

To time Kurtz's arrival and that as a result Kurtz' time will not be recognized officially.

LEAVES LANDSOWN FIELD

Kurtz left his Waco land plane off the Landsown field at 4:05 a.m. yesterday, according to Sydney Pickles, local air engineer, who did the timing. The flyer expected to average 100 miles per hour for the 1,200-mile flight to Tijuana.

On the flight, Kurtz hoped to establish two new records, one for the fastest flight for a pilot under twenty-one years of age, and the other a speed record for planes with engines of 125 horsepower or less.

The twenty-year-old aviator already has five years of flying experience on his records, and has flown 700 hours. He holds two junior records, one established in 1921, when he flew from Los Angeles to New York in twenty-three and a half hours, and back in twenty-six hours, and the junior speed record of 125 miles an hour.

Explains Means To Prevent War Between Nations

Declaring that without money war could not be successfully waged, Frederick Swift, retired Wall Street financial broker and student of international affairs, in an interview at the Empress Hotel yesterday, pointed out that Great Britain and the United States could, by keeping a close hand on their money and standing together, show other nations the futility of conflict.

"Britain's Prime Minister has said that his Government is always prepared to co-operate with the United States in the interests of peace. The significance of that statement is not lost by the United States," he added. Already Great Britain had shown her hand, Mr. Swift contended, by refusing to loan money to Italy.

"The very fact that the Atlantic is controlled by the navy of Great Britain, and the Pacific by the United States fleet, is a strong argument against war," the visitor concluded.

Commoner to Wed in Famous Chapel

LONDON, Aug. 8 (AP).—The first girl outside the ranks of royalty to be married in the Henry VII Chapel, the chapel of the Order of the Bath, in Westminster Abbey, will be the daughter of Admiral of the Fleet Sir Roger Keyes, who is a Knight Grand Cross of the Bath.

The privilege that the marriage should take place in the Henry VII Chapel, said Sir Roger, was granted by the King about a month ago. Miss Keyes will marry Peter Willop William-Powlett, youngest son of Major and Mrs. William-Powlett, of Ottery St. Mary.

PHARMACISTS HAVE FUTURE

Gordon Allison Grant Tells Members About Chemistry Aspect of Profession

Pharmaceutical chemistry stands upon the threshold of a new era, Gordon Allison Grant, B.Sc., Ph.D., Halifax, told delegates to the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association convention here yesterday.

Mr. Grant declared that the isolation and purification of the active principles of various substances and their synthesis in the laboratory, and the study of their therapeutic action, furnished a vast and profitable field of experiment for the serious-minded pharmacist.

He traced the work of scientists along these lines and told how Vitamin A had been synthesized. Structure of Vitamin C, for the prevention of scurvy, had also been established. He gave an account of research work on Vitamin B, necessary in the diet for proper growth.

VETERINARY COURSE

H. S. Tapscott, Brantford, Ont., stressed the need for more practical education of pharmacists in various colleges. He mentioned that the Ontario College of Pharmacy was planning to include a veterinary course which would be invaluable to graduates who later located in farming centres.

He believed that a study of cosmetics should also be made in order that pharmacists might talk more intelligently to customers on the subject of "make-up."

CODE OF ETHICS

J. H. Best, retiring president, outlined a plan for the drawing of an adequate code of ethics for Canadian pharmacists which would meet approval of the Provincial associations. He believed that drug stores should primarily be pharmacies and not novelty shops.

Dr. E. B. J. Stanbury told of a code of ethics drawn up at the Calgary convention, but it had not received approval of Provincial associations.

Delegates decided to leave the matter in the hands of the council, whose members will appoint a committee to draw up a code of ethics for presentation at the Saskatoon convention next August.

HEALTH REPORT IS ENCOURAGING

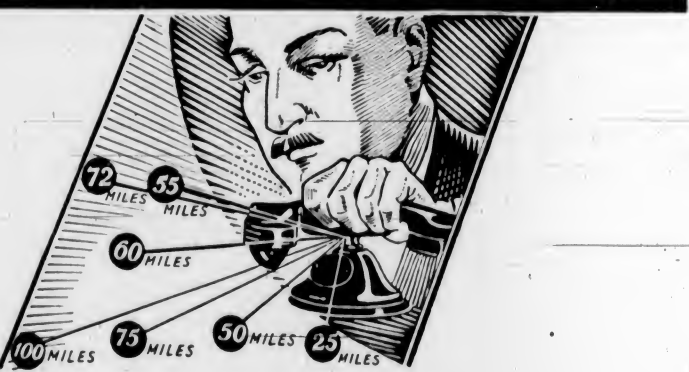

Dr. W. F. Walker Finds Municipality in Good Condition—No Bad Flood Results
The report of Dr. W. F. Walker, health officer of Oak Bay, submitted to the council at yesterday's meeting, disclosed the fact that the general health of the district had been excellent.

An interesting feature of the report was that dealing with the floodings of some of the basements during last January, which, the medical officer pointed out, had given rise to a feeling that there might be an injurious effect upon health conditions later.

On the contrary, there were no such results and the flooding appeared to have cleaned out the drains in an effective manner, destroying some rats that had formerly been complained of in certain sections.

The report refers to the splendid physique of the school children and the general absence of disease among the youth of the district.

Four Hundred Dancers Attend Ball at Empress

Golf Prizes Presented During Supper at Canadian Pharmaceutical Association Dance Last Night—Attractive Favors and Programmes

The social highlight of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association convention held here this week, was the ball at the Empress Hotel last evening, which was attended by about 400 dancers. The committee responsible for the entertainment of the visitors were warmly congratulated upon the success of the ball.

A sit-down supper was served at 11 p.m. in the main dining-room of the hotel, the tables beautifully arranged with Summer flowers in shades of mauve and pink. During supper, Mr. R. J. Jenkins, vice-chairman of the committee, presented the trophies won in the golf tournament.

Each of the lady guests received a rose carnation boutonniere, and special prizes were awarded in a contest, the ladies receiving attractive compacts, fountain pens and other novelties.

The dance programmes were original in design, representing a drug-gist's graduate, or medicine glass, and each of the dances was specially dedicated to the president of the C.P.A., the Canadian, Alberta, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Prince Edward Island, Quebec, Saskatchewan and British Columbia Associations, as well as to the wholesale druggists, the retail druggists, sea-going hawkers and the ladies, the home walls, "Say It With Music," being dedicated "To Everybody."

The committee included the following: Mr. Bernard Gough and Mr. Ivan Moore, reception; Mr. W. H. Jenkins, vice-chairman; Mr. J. H. Pullen, publicity; Mr. J. G. MacFarlane, secretary; Mr. Goldwyn Terry, hotels; Mr. H. Davenport, transportation; Mr. J. Riddell, finance, while the ladies' committee, headed by Miss "Pat" Hudson, included Mrs. J. H. Wider Skirts Are Shown for Winter

PARIS, Aug. 8 (AP)—Wider skirts appeared today as Winter fashion show openings reached their height. Many stained velvet and changeable silk afternoon frocks were designed with fairly full skirts falling in soft folds. Crepe wool frocks had knife-pleated skirts.

The skirts in suits and many day dresses, however, retained their slender, tubular lines.

The outstanding day colors were black, bottle and veronese greens, brown and grey.

The dressier Winter coats were generally black, designed in slender lines and often belted.

There were pockets everywhere. Even afternoon coats sometimes had a pair of hipbone pockets.

Gladys Glad On Beauty

When King Solomon, who was renowned for his great wisdom, stated that there is nothing new under the sun, he certainly knew what he was talking about. Take those new artificial fingernails that Paris is now sponsoring, for instance. Most women have the idea that they are exclusively an invention of this modern era, but take it from me, they aren't. Way back in the days of the Pharaohs, Egyptian princesses wore thin sheaths of gold over their fingernails, in order to make their finger tips more alluring. And these gold sheaths were very much like the artificial fingernails that the modern woman sports.

As lovely Claire Trevor of cinema fame can tell you, artificial fingernails really are becoming compulsory today. Claire, herself, possesses very beautifully shaped nails naturally, and so she really hasn't any need for artificial ones. But she does like to wear artificial nails occasionally for evening wear, especially the burnished metal type, which, she claims, are too bizarre for day-time wear. But they give a very pleasing effect when worn at formal functions, for they give the finger tips a sort of "jeweled" appearance.

Artificial fingernails are now of two different types. The first type is made of some pliable composition, and is attached to each nail with a special gluey preparation that comes with the nails. A bit of soaking is all that is required to remove these nails from your own fingers, and you may do this nightly, if you desire. These artificial nails are used in several shades to match or harmonize with gowns, and also come in standard and more conservative shades.

The second type of artificial fingernails is more bizarre, but more perfect. These nails are made of light, thin metal, and are made from plaster casts, so that they fit the fingertips perfectly. They are held in place by tiny, invisible clips, and are easily attached and detached. These nails can be among whom were Communists led by a woman "in red."

After many hours of rioting, the demonstrators gradually disappeared from the streets, and military authorities clamped down with strict surveillance of the city's residents.

FORCES IN READINESS

Large army and navy forces garrisoned at Toulon, which is France's principal Mediterranean naval port, were held in readiness to prevent fresh disorders, and 200 troops from Dragunian were en route to the city.

While the number of the wounded lacked confirmation, eighteen persons were known to have been seriously wounded in the exchange of gunfire between mobile guardsmen and manifestos.

Officials denied reports that a state of siege had been proclaimed, but admitted strict measures were being taken to prevent any continuance of the disorders that had the city in an uproar through the night.

COUNCILLORS ARRESTED

Officials announced that they had arrested more than fifty persons among whom was the left-wing member of the Toulon Municipal Council and a city councillor from La Seyne.

Earlier, manifestants had paraded through the streets of Cherbourg and at Brest angry shipyard workers had marched with their wives silently behind a dead comrade killed in rioting on Tuesday.

One person was seriously injured in Brest when 200 workmen clashed with mobile guards.

Two thousand workers at the Arsenal in Lorient paraded in a demonstration, but no clashes were reported. This was the first demonstration against the economy measures at that point.

Among the liners tied up at Le Havre was the Champlain, with more than 800 passengers for New York. The liner has been scheduled to sail since 2 p.m. on Wednesday.

PROMISING REVIVAL

As reports reached Paris of the demonstration in Toulon, Premier Laval issued a statement promising France a business revival if "the nation's discipline" responded to his decree laws, which he said, had been drawn up as "preparation for economic recovery which is the essential aim of the Government's action."

One of the laws abolished twenty-three industrial import quotas, elimination of which had long been forecast.

Continuation of the disorders in Toulon were attributed by some officials to snipers who hid in houses and delayed the work of the authorities in clearing the streets.

Naval searchlights were used to seek out the snipers as the mob broke street lamps. Store windows were also smashed and from many shops arms and ammunition were stolen.

Guests Enjoy Day at Sooke

Visitors' day at the Anglican Church girls' camp at Sooke, on Wednesday, was a pronounced success both from the point of view of the visitors, to many of whom the charming location was new, and of the girls and their staff, who received their guests with enthusiasm and kindly hospitality.

Two crowded buses left the city at 1:30 p.m. The students had prepared a programme of sports, held on the playing ground, in the centre of which is a fine flag pole on which is the Union Jack, a gift from the I.O.O.F. to the camp.

The staff entertained over seventy guests to tea, and the tables in the dining-room were decorated with flowers brought by the visitors. The staff desires to thank all who contributed not only flowers, but various provisions, as well as cash, which were most acceptable. The muster is forty-nine, with five resident staff, and the nurse reports a clean bill of health and no casualties.

About fifty visitors spent part of Wednesday afternoon at the Anglican girls' camp. Games and tea were enjoyed by visiting girls and parents, under the camp organization, with Miss Cheekley in charge.

The net proceeds of the garden fete held in aid of St. Paul's Naval and Garrison Church, Esquimalt, at the homes of Major and Mrs. Piddington and Dr. and Mrs. Rickard on Wednesday afternoon, amounted to $300. The committee feels most gratified at the success of the affair.

STORIED SPOTS FROM SEA TO SEA

By W. J. Banks, B.A.

ISLE OF THE BEAUTIFUL SUN

It was the missionary, Joseph le Caron, who first of white men, was privileged to see the lovely shores of Georgian Bay in 1615. Champlain followed in the same year, and ever since the region has been prominent in the story of Canada's westward growth. The bay with its innumerable islands, famed Summer paradise of today, formed a link in the ancient route to Lake Superior and beyond. Its waters bore the pioneer explorers, traders and missionaries, whether they traveled by the Ottawa and French Rivers, or chose the alternate course via Lakes Ontario and Simcoe.

Among the Georgian Bay islands which fate has singled out for individual fame is Beausoleil. It received its French name as a translation of the Indian "Land of the Beautiful Sun," and indeed the region is still noted for its gorgeous sunrise and sunset on the waters. Champlain himself has given his name to a rocky point on Beausoleil. Following the destruction of the Huron nation by the Iroquois, a number of survivors were said to have taken refuge on its shores.

As in the case of most spots of surpassing beauty, the nature-loving Indian race has woven many legends about this lovely life. One of these tells us that Beausoleil was chosen as a resting place by the Great Spirit as he labored to create the Great Lakes system. Depressions on the surface mark where his shoulders lay. As one of thirty Georgian Bay islands which Canada has set aside for the perpetual use of the people as a national park, Beausoleil is assured of protection for its natural beauties.

Mrs. Winifred Hadden and Miss Marjorie Christopher were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Hadden, Beach Drive, on Wednesday evening at a shower in honor of Miss Doris Winifred, whose marriage to Mr. Edmond Ironside will take place at Parry Sound, Ont., at the end of this month. The presents, concealed in a beautifully decorated hat box of mauve ruffles with a Colonial bouquet of the same shade, were presented by little June Hadden dressed in a costume of mid-Victorian style. The evening was spent in games.

FINE CONCERT ON SHOW BOAT

Masonic Male Voice Choir
Entertains Large Audience
With Classical Numbers

Capacity crowds gathered around the Show Boat in the Inner Harbor last night to hear the Masonic Male Voice Choir, under the leadership of J. W. Buckler, in a programme of choral numbers which embraced many of the well-known classics. In spite of the difficulty of singing in the open air and through a system of microphones, the choir gave a splendid evening's entertainment and, judging by the applause that greeted the close of each number, the big audience fully appreciated the efforts of the singers.

ASSISTING ARTISTS

The assisting artists were: Madame Scott-Murritt, contralto; Ernie Impett, humorist, and Harry S. Hay, who occupied the dual position of announcer and soloist.

Madame Scott-Murritt sang a group of numbers including "Just a Wearying For You," "I Love You Truly" and "Trees," the latter proving particularly pleasing to the audience and was heartily encored. Mr. Impett was heard in a number of humorous songs, his best being "Fishing." Mr. Hay sang one of the Jubilee solos, "Let Us Sing Unto Their Majesties," assisted by the choir.

THE PROGRAMME

The programme opened with the chorus, "Hunters' Joy." Arnold Trevett sang two solos, "Come to the Fair" and "Keep on Hoping." Ernie Impett sang "I'm a Daddy," "Signora" and Captain Gingham. J. M. Thomas and J. W. Buckler were heard in two duets, "Love and War" and "Larboard Watch." Alfred Palmer's solos were, "When the Ebb Tide Flows" and "The Jolly Roger." The choir numbers were: Plantation Melody, "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," part song, "The Lost Chord," "On the Sea," Brahms' "Lullaby" and Gounod's "Soldiers' Chorus."

The concert was arranged under the auspices of the Tourist Trade Development Association of Vancouver Island.

Meteor Seen By Bicyclist At Maple Bay

H. G. Shaw, of Milner, B.C., who is an amateur astronomer, yesterday reported seeing a meteor fall on Wednesday night, presumably the same one that was reported by Seattle residents.

He saw the object while at Maple Bay, and its path was visible for only two seconds at the very most. It was so brilliant that it obscured the light from other stars except Venus and the moon, and descended in a direction south of Victoria. Mr. Shaw is making a bicycle tour of Vancouver Island, and fortunately was doing some night riding at the time, so was able to get a good view of the meteor.

ETHIOPIA BELIEVED LOOKING TO ORIENT

was interpreted in informed quarters as finally wrecking the much-dimmed hope for peace. Publicly, Haile Selassie continues to base hopes on the League of Nations that his country will yet be saved from the sword.

The German legation denied rumors that General Hans Kundt, former commander of the Bolivian army, was in Ethiopia to join the army.

OFFICIALLY CONFIRMED

TORONTO, Aug. 8 (AP)—Japan moved further into the Ethiopian picture today when it was officially established that she will open a legation at Addis Ababa in January. An announcement said plans to create the legation were not connected with the Italo-Ethiopian crisis, but were a result of Japan's growing commercial connections with the African kingdom. Government officials, discussing reports from Addis Ababa that an Ethiopian mission probably would be sent to Japan, said they did not know whether Ethiopia is preparing to open a legation in Tokyo, nor what plans the reported mission might have.

PARIS, Aug. 8 (AP)—Plans of Premier Mussolini for huge manoeuvres in Northern Italy today stirred, but failed to alarm negotiators who are seeking to avert a war.

Premier Laval was busy with domestic troubles, but a staff is evolving tentative plans for conversations here next week between Britain, France and Italy.

"The problem, officials said, is to find a formula for Italian economic domination of Ethiopia with enough political control to satisfy Mussolini, but not too much for Ethiopia to accept."

SECRET MANOEUVRES

ROME, Aug. 8 (AP)—Premier Mussolini gave strict orders today that gigantic military manoeuvres to be held near the Brenner Pass be kept secret, following unconfirmed reports that Italy has made great strides in developing offensive weapons hitherto unknown.

More than 500,000 men will take part in the war drills, to be held some time this month along the serrated Alpine Range.

"No form of newspapermen will be allowed," said his spokesman.

UPSETTING BALANCE

One of the arguments of Europe against Mussolini's African plans has been that he cannot send great contingents to Africa without bleeding the Italian army, counted upon by Britain and France to exercise a "stabilizing influence" in European politics, particularly to preserve Austria's independence against Nazi Germany.

For each one of the seven regular army divisions ordered to East Africa, however, he has created replacement divisions. Meanwhile, he has created six extra divisions of Blackshirt militia and expects to have a million men in the field by October.

A Government spokesman asserted today that Italy needs no help, "financially or otherwise," from abroad, in her Ethiopian problem.

TAKING PRECAUTIONS

ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 8 (AP)—The British Legation advised British missionaries and British-protected subjects to evacuate their women and children from Ethiopia when convenient. The action was described as a precautionary measure.

GRATEFUL TO EMPLOYEES

LONDON, Aug. 8 (AP)—The estate of the late Sir George Touche, head of a firm of accountants with branches in Montreal and Toronto, was probated today at about $935,000. Scottish Football Season Will Open Tomorrow; Teams Switch Line-Ups

Glasgow Rangers To be Intact for Arbroath Fixture

Present Champions and Cupholders Will Have Some Eleven on Deck for Opening Match—Celtic to Have Several New Faces

GLASGOW, Aug. 8 (P)—Scottish soccer clubs are optimistic regarding the 1935-1936 season, which opens Saturday. Economic conditions have continued to improve since the beginning of the year when better attendances were reflected in the balance sheets of the various clubs. Directors hope for higher "gate" than for many years.

Glasgow Rangers, champions and cupholders, who meet Arbroath newcomers to First Division football, on Saturday, at Ibrox Park, have made practically no change in their personnel. On their record of last year they will again play a big part in the coming campaign.

Celtic, rival of Rangers for years, has disappointed its supporters for some time and this year presents revamped team. C. Napier, the brothers O'Donnell, and W. Dunn have been transferred to English clubs. In their place the club has signed W. Lyon, of Queen's Park, who has built up a fine reputation as a defender, and "Buntly" Miller, a brother of William Miller, Aberdeen, who made such a fine impression in Canada earlier in the summer.

FEW CHANGES

There will be little change in the Heart of Midlothian team. Barney Battles returns to the side after being out of the game for a year, and J. Wipfler, of Bristol Rovers, English Third Division club, has been brought in to strengthen the outside left position.

Arbroath will find the opening game with Rangers a formidable ordeal. The team has been strengthened by the signing of J. A. Johnston, Hearts' international half-back, who will operate alongside Colin McNab, the old Dundee player. C. Johnston, of Mother-

NEGRO FACES MAXIE BAER NEXT MONTH

Joe Louis Matched With Former Champion Late In September

By PAUL NICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Joe Louis will throw his next assortment of fists at the chin and frame of the former heavyweight king, Max Baer.

Max Baer, less than twenty-four hours after he had scored his twenty-fourth consecutive ring triumph by smashing King Leopold into a helpless hulk here last night, the sensational brown bomber from Detroit was signed by promoter Mike Jacobs to tangle with the Liverpool larruper at either New York or Chicago the night of September 26 or 27.

Jacobs, one of the shrewdest promoters in the game, had three alternatives. He could stage the fight in Chicago under the sponsorship of the Sporting Club of Illinois, a newly-organized group composed of wealthy Chicago sportsmen; he could run it at New York probably at the Polo Grounds, under the sponsorship of the Twentieth Century Club of which he is promoter; or he could step out and do it himself. The latter possibility was rejected, however. If the fight is staged at Chicago, it will be held at either Soldier's Field, scene of the Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney spectacle of 1927, or at the White Sox ball park, which can be arranged to seat 70,000 to 75,000.

LOUIS ELATED
"I intend to hold the bids open for ten days," Jacobs said.

Louis, who in slightly more than a year has battered his way to become a dangerous contender for the title held by Jimmy Braddock, was

Champion Perrys Meet

Apparently the Perrys of England are very much at home in championship ranks. Here are two of that ilk, "tops" in their respective classes. Fred Perry, left, world champion tennis ace and mainstay of the British Davis Cup team, who retained the trophy, greets "Little Al" Perry, new British open golf champion. Al is holding his golf cup as he congratulates Fred on his Wimbledon showing. He gave the tennis player a few hints on the links' game. They are not relatives.

Esquimalt and Sailors Will Clash Sunday

ESQUIMALT and the Royal Canadian Navy soccer eleven will meet Sunday afternoon at Bullen Park. The game is a sudden-death game to decide which club shall oppose H.M.S. Dana's squad here next week in the Naval Veterans' Trophy fixture at the Royal Athletic Park.

PEGGY HORNE DEFEATED IN TENNIS MEET

Top Seeded Player Eliminated as Play Continues In Up-Island Tourney

DUNCAN, Aug. 8.—Some excellent tennis was seen at the Duncan Tennis Club today in the annual open tournament. The biggest upset of the day was the defeat of Peggy Horne, seeded No. 1 player, by K. Grogan, who is playing for the first time as a senior on the local courts. Miss Grogan played a very fine game to beat Miss Horne in a close three-set match, 7-5, 4-6, 6-4.

Sparling took the first set, 7-5, and after leading, 5-3, in the second dropped the set at 7-9. Some fine play was seen all through the third set being Sparling's at 6-4.

Fridays matches promise to be worth watching. At 1 o'clock Dranga and Ossie Ryall will meet Little and Colwell, of Seattle, in what should be a good match, and the singles at 2 o'clock between Bob Hocking and George Sparling provide some fine play for the spectators.

LEADERS DEFEATED TWICE BY PHILLIES AS CUBS REGISTER

New York Drops Important Double-Header to Lowly Philadelphia Squad and Lead Is Cut to Two Games From Trailing Chicagoans—Yanks Lose as Tigers Win Again

NATIONAL LEAGUE

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 8 (P)—The New York Giants' lead dwindled to two games today, as the low-ranking Phillies, showing no respect for Hal Schumacher and Carl Hubbell, captured a double-header while the second-place Cubs were whipping the Pirates in a single contest. The scores were 7-4 and 6-3.

In the opening game the Phillies landed on Schumacher for nine hits in the four innings he was on the mound. Carl Hubbell, capturing his third victory of the season, out-pitched year over Hubbell in the nightcap, had the Giants shut out until the ninth, when Terry men counted three times on as many hits and an error.

The Phils got to Hubbell for twelve blows, including Al Todd's home run with two on.

First game: R H E
New York 4 10 1
Philadelphia 7 12 2

Batteries—Schumacher, Chagnon, Gabler and Mancuso; Wasters, Jorgens and Wilson.

Second game: R H E
New York 3 9 0
Philadelphia 6 12 3

Batteries—Hubbell and Danning; Davis and Todd.

Herman Leads Attack
CHICAGO, Aug. 8 (P)—Bill Herman's hitting and Tex Carleton's relief pitching combined to bring the challenging Chicago Cubs from behind to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 9-5, today. Hanging out two doubles and a single to drive in four runs and scoring one himself, Herman led the Cubs' fourteen-hit attack on Red Lucas, Guy Bush, Waite Hoyt and Mace Brown.

Carleton, who succeeded Bill Lee with none out in the third and the Cubs leading 5-0, pitched three-hit ball the last seven innings, and received credit for his tenth victory of the campaign. One of the hits off Carleton was a home run by Earl Grace.

First game: R H E
Pittsburgh 5 11 1
Chicago 9 14 2

Batteries—Lucas, Hoyt and Grace; Lee, Carleton, Bush and O'Dea.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (P)—Although Lou Gehrig celebrated the playing of his 1,600th consecutive game by cracking out his eighteenth home run of the season, the New York Yankees were unable to halt the Athletics' ninth-inning rally today, falling before Philadelphia, 9-6. The defeat dropped the Yanks five games back of the Tigers.

Gehrig's homer, his only safe blow of the game, was hit to 29th and his 36th home run in 5,997 times at bat since he started his record striding June 1, 1925. It gave him a batting average of .343 for the 1,600 games.

First game: R H E
Philadelphia 9 16 2
New York 6 11 3

Batteries—Pearson, Stewart and Phillips; Cain, Thomas, Coffman, Waikup and Hemsley.

Scanty Attendance
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 8 (P)—Weak hurling cost the league-trailing Browns a 14-8 defeat in the first game of their double-header with the Cleveland Indians today, but they launched a strong hitting attack to take the nightcap, 9-5. The twin bill drew a scant 1,500 fans.

First game: R H E

St. Louis 9 10 5

Sons of Canada And Clubmen to Battle Tonight

SONS OF Canada and Tillamook will make a second attempt to decide which is the better club, when they clash this evening at the Royal Athletic Park in a Victoria Senior Baseball League fixture at 6 o'clock. In their last tussle Monday evening the clubs battled to a 3-3 score—Jimmy Pradone first striking batter in the Canadians' camp, will go to the slab against the clubmen, with Massa Kuwabara, regular catcher, at the receiving end.

"Wack" Osmund, speedball artist, will do the heating for the Tillamooks, and will have Harry Holmes, peppery backstop, as his battery mate.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8 (P)—Larry French, Chicago Cubs southpaw, was fined $50 today for his verbal attack on Umpire Stark in yesterday's game with Pittsburgh. The remark occasioned by Stark calling Harry, Vaughan safe at first on a close play, resulted in French being banished from the game.

Local Cricketers Hand North Shore Team One-Sided Trouncing

NORTH VANCOUVER, Aug. 8 (P)—Victoria's visiting cricketers handed North Shore eleven a sound trouncing today in the fourth day of a play of the North Shore cricket week. Needing only eight runs to add to their first innings total of 187 for an innings victory, Reg Wernman and Poyntz went in for a first wicket partnership and scored 109 runs, not out, before declaring in the second innings. Wernman hit four fours in his innings of 71 and Poyntz collected 34.

Then, with Poyntz and Peers in deadly form, the North Shore batsmen were dismissed for a total of 58 runs in twenty minutes. Poyntz took four wickets for 25 runs and Peers five for 27.

In their first innings the Islanders lost five wickets for 59 runs before Rev. Comley joined Goward, and the pair batted the total to 115. Dawson collected 25 and Anglin and Jordan added 12 which, with 32 extras, gave the Victorians their 187 total.

With the exception of a 62 by Perry Broadfoot, North Shore batsmen fared badly at the hands of the Victoria bowling, and were all out for 137 in their first innings.

Larry French Fined

CHICAGO, Aug. 8 (P)—Larry French, Chicago Cubs southpaw, was fined $50 today for his verbal attack on Umpire Stark in yesterday's game with Pittsburgh. The remark occasioned by Stark calling Harry, Vaughan safe at first on a close play, resulted in French being banished from the game.

U.S. WOMEN'S TEAM CHOSEN

Squad to Face England in Wightman Cup Series Is Selected

NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (P)—The first four ranking players and two others whose tennis exploits have attracted attention this summer were chosen today to represent the United States in the Wightman Cup series against Britain's leading stars at Forest Hills Friday and Saturday of next week.

The team is made up of Helen Jacobs, three-time national champion; Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, of Brookline, Mass.; Carolin Babcock, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Dorothy Andrus, of New York; Mrs. Phil Burkhardt Arnold, of San Francisco and Mrs. John Van Ryn, of Philadelphia.

Although the lineup for the five singles and two doubles matches will not be revealed until the draw on Wednesday, it was certain that Miss Jacobs would draw the No. 1 singles assignment, and also would play doubles. She and Mrs. Fabyan accounted for all four winning points in England last year when the United States won the cup for the fourth successive time.

The British team, which arrived here Tuesday, has been practicing at Forest Hills. It is probable the singles assignments will go to Dorothy Round, Kay Stammers and Mrs. Phyllis Mudford King. Freda James and Miss Stammers and Nancy Lyle and Evelyn Dearman are slated to play doubles.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
From the Grady to the Grave—The famous French author Chateaubriand (1768-1848) was born on September 4, 1768, upon a rock near the harbor of St. Malo, France, on which his parents were cast away in a shipwreck. As soon as he grew to manhood the writer purchased the rock, directing that he be buried on the same spot after death. His wish was fulfilled, and Chateaubriand's grave now stands on the identical spot where he was born.

Remenyi—Eduard Remenyi (1830-1899) was a native of Hungary. In the Hungarian rebellion against Austria in 1848, he joined his country's army. During the war, for many years thereafter, while he was proscribed by the Austrian Government, he went about Hungary playing patriotic songs and inflaming the Hungarians into the resistance against the Government of Vienna. Recognizing the great danger, the Austrian Government issued an official decree providing the death penalty for Remenyi's playing. Six times various extraordinary courts sentenced Remenyi to death in absentia, for violating the decree. They were unable to execute the sentence however, because the violinist escaped their pursuit time after time. In 1860 Remenyi was amnestied and returned to Hungary, to an enthusiastic official reception by his Government.

Play Smart Ball Behind Palmer's Pitching to Register Win in Important Softball Series—Bruins Whip Poodle Dog, 6-2—Hollywood Club Noses Out Market Nine

Gaining a four-run lead in the first three innings, when they collected six of their ten base knocks, Brunson's Boys, smooth-functioning Esquimalt softball nine, defeated the Silent Glows, 5-3, yesterday evening, at the Royal Athletic Park, to gain a one-game lead in the "A" Section play-downs.

The fourth fixture will be played Monday evening, with the grounds yet to be announced by the Lower Island Softball Association officials. Victory here for Brunson's Boys will give them the right to represent the "A" Section in the city play-offs.

Speedsters Hit Line

With a bang! bang! bang! and a cloud of spray, Class "C" boats hit the starting line in a bunch, to begin their dash over the surface of the Hudson River at Indian Point, N.Y., in the first annual Indian Point Y.C. outboard motorboat regatta. Ten thousand spectators were on hand to watch leading putt-putt specialists put their bucking cockles through their paces.

Mixed Wrestling And Boxing Card At Mount Stephen

WITH Wally Edwards, the "Cedar Hill Wildcat," matching holds with George Lowe, the "Chinese Flash," in the top grappling bout, another mixed, fast-paced and wrestling programme will be presented this evening by the popular Mount Stephen Athletic Club at their outdoor stadium located on Mount Stephen Avenue.

Two other squirms and five boxing bouts will round out the attractive card. The first mix will start at 8:30 o'clock, and patrons can reach the arena by the Hillside street car or the Haultain bus.

Slingshot drive, and "Red" Palmer's circuit smash in the second inning, there were a number of good catches in the outer gardens.

Bringing their artillery into early action, Brunson's Boys drove over two markers in the initial frame, and added one more in each of the second and third frames to gain their four-run lead.

For the next two innings the clubs went scoreless as the batters retired almost in perfect order.

Silent Glows, battling desperately, finally elicited in the scoring column in the sixth inning and sent two runners the distance. There was little scoring after this, only two runs being added, one by each club. The winners scored once in the seventh and Silent Glows in the eighth.

"Red" Palmer, speedball twirler, pitched great ball for the winners and finished the game in spectacular fashion, using but five balls on the last three batters. The first batter fanned, the next man flied out to the catcher, and the third out came from a foul tip.

Brunson's Boys collected ten bingles from the offerings of Lloyd Jones, Silent Glows' southpaw ace, while the burnermen garnered seven hits from "Red" Palmer.

HOLLYWOOD CLUB WINS
Trailing their opponents as late as the seventh frame in a game where the lead shifted twice in the first three innings, Hollywood Club drove over three runs in the eighth inning to nose out the Esquimalt team, 14-13, at Central Park.

Score by Innings:
Esquimalt 315 020 101-13
Hollywood Club 320 101 43-14

Pushing over nine runs in the first frame, Strawberry Vale drove its way to a 16-11 victory over Schumacher's in a Junior Softball League fixture played at Victoria West Park. The game was called at the end of the fifth on account of darkness.

VISITORS TRIUMPH
Visiting, Duncan exhibitors took both ends of a twin-bill exhibition series with the Metropolitans and the First Streeters, Victoria Sunday School Softball League clubs, played at Memorial and Central Parks.

Playing in the afternoon game at Central Park, Duncan slugged their way to a 21-19 victory over the First Street ballhoosers in an interesting game. The locals gained the lead early in the fixture only to have Duncan rally and take the game.

The highcap was a keenly-contested battle with the clubs playing smart ball. Duncan, taking a 6-1 lead in the first five innings, pulled out on the right end of a 7-4 score after some exciting moments.

Following the evening game the visitors were the supper guests of the local players.

CLEANERS VICTORIOUS
Tying the score in the sixth and then scoring three more runs in the next frame, Alan Baker and his Togo Cleaners' nine came through with a sweet victory over Harris' Cycles in the junior section by a 4-1 score. The win puts the Cleaners in a tie for top place with the Cycles and forces a play-off.

ARMOUR TO DEFEND
TORONTO, Aug. 8 (P)—Tommy Armour, of Detroit, "Black Scot" of United States golf, will defend his Canadian open title over the Summer course, Montreal, on August 29-31. It was announced today at the Royal Canadian Golf Association headquarters here. Armour, winner of the title in 1927, 1930 and 1934, filed his entry with Secretary B. L. Anderson.

Bowling Trophy Won By Visitors by Ten Points Over Locals

Outsiders Capture 235-to-225 Fixture From Victorians to Lift Kelly-Douglas Trophy—Doubles Winners Are Announced

By W. H. YOUNG

The spirit of merriment was at its height last evening among the lawn bowlers in attendance at the tournament here, when the annual contest for the Kelly-Douglas Trophy between visitors and local players was staged. This is an event which is eagerly looked forward to, and during the contest the best of good-fellowship prevailed. Men who had striven desperately with each other in the regular scheduled competitions had forgotten the more strenuous struggles and gave themselves to the good feeling which predominated. After the usual keen struggle the outsiders came out on top by a score of 235 to 225.

Play in the comrade doubles sections was concluded yesterday afternoon, and the final play-down stage was reached. Section 1 was captured by A. Chrisp and M. Holt, New Westminster. Section 2 fell to J. S. Snedden and J. G. Hindmarch, of Nanaimo. M. De Cew and P. Corcoran took Section 3 after a play-off with E. E. Corbett, Jr., and D. Dewar, of Victoria. A play-off was necessary to decide the winners of Section 4, between P. Ormiston and W. Armstrong, of Victoria, and D. C. Robertson and W. Robb, of the C.P.R., of Victoria. The latter won the coveted place. J. S. Ashton and J. J. Price, Marpole, took Section 5, and W. Washington and W. Tupman, of Burnside, won Section 6. M. M. Reston and D. McQueen, of Vancouver South, captured Section 7. S. Bazandall and C. E. Swankland led in Section 8, and Meikle and Bryson, of Cedar Cottage, succeeded in defeating E. Eastham and P. Hamard, of Burnside, and W. Perleth and W. Kenmuir, of Vancouver South, after a tie for Section 9.

Play in the women's doubles was brought down to the semi-finals, in which are included teams skipped by Mrs. Hancock, of Burnside; Mrs. Holmes, of C.P.R., Vancouver; Mrs. Webster, of Lake Hill, and Mrs. Jones, of C.P.R., Victoria.

Commencing at 9 o'clock this morning, play in the mixed rinks competition will be in full swing, each rink playing four games in four sections. With the completion of the preliminary or sectional play, the play-offs will be staged, possibly in the evening.

It is also expected that the finals in the men's doubles and the women's doubles will be staged on Saturday morning, simultaneously with the men's rinks. Final in the men's single will be played this evening. All finals will be played on the Victoria greens.

FINANCE - COMMERCE - MARKETS

Security Prices Little Changed At Wall Street

NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (AP).—A more aggressive attitude on the part of the stock market bulls today replaced their recent passive resistance to the pressure of profit-taking.

In some of the more active issues, especially in merchandising, steel and aircraft shares and some of the specialties, advances ranged from fractions to around 2 points, but for the market as a whole improvement was modest and there were more than a few minus signs at the finish.

The list's improvement, as measured by the Associated Press average of sixty stocks, was 2 of 1 point at 47.3 with industrial moderately outdistancing the utilities and rails. Stock exchange turnover accelerated slightly at 1,433,160 shares.

General Motors advanced fractionally to a new high for the year at 42.3-4 as July sales figures to consumers, dealers and for export all registered satisfactory gains over a year ago, although dipping slightly from the June total.

United States customers were 108,645 units, compared with 137,782 in June and 101,243 in July, 1934.

The bond market was without excitement or any general buying urge today and price changes among corporate groups, on the whole, were relatively narrow.

Most high-grade corporate loans merely marked time or held their variations to small fractions. An exception in this class was Liggett & Myers 5's which sagged more than 1 point to 120.3-4.

The foreign division was listless.

THE SEADROMES

ARE FLOATING PLATFORMS ANCHORED 500 MILES APART ALONG OCEAN AIRWAYS. THEY ARE TO SERVE AS MID-OCEAN SERVICE STATIONS.

THEIR BUOYANCY COMES FROM CAISSONS DEEP BENEATH THE SURFACE WHERE THE WATER IS ALWAYS QUIET. THUS ROUGH WATER DOES NOT DISTURB THESE FLOATING PLATFORMS.

SEADROMES BREAK THE OCEAN CROSSING INTO SHORTER HOPS AND PERMIT OCEAN TRANSPORTS, EITHER LANDPLANES OR AMPHIBIANS, TO CARRY LESS FUEL AND MORE PAYLOAD.

THE seadrome is the invention of Edward R. Armstrong, of Wilmington, Delaware. Its purpose is to serve as an intermediate service and fueling station for ocean-flying craft. These floating platforms will be 1,200 feet long and 400 feet wide with hotel accommodations for passengers as well as complete facilities for servicing aircraft. They are anchored by heavy steel cables at one end attached to huge concrete moorings, hence they always lie lengthwise into the wind, making their length available for into-the-wind landings and take-offs. Opinion is far from unanimous as to their value. One group of experts insist that it is better to span oceans in flying boats by jumping from island to island and landing in protected waters. On the other hand, seadrome experts declare that landplanes or amphibians may be used for the 500-mile-hop-between-seadromes, thus eliminating the huge fuel load and providing capacity for more pay loads. Practical ocean pilots like Clarence Chamberlain insist that landings on these platforms will be extremely difficult in dense fog, since they project 100 feet above the surface. However, fog dissipation devices, now experimental, may remove this objection.

SMART MONEY
Smart money—an expression alluding to money bet on the basis of inside information has an interesting story.

The word smart itself is a hold-over from the Old English smerte signifying pain.

Smart money, originally, therefore, was an idiom used in connection with money which relieved somebody from enduring a painful or unpleasant situation, such as the necessity to serve in the army; and generally, to money which purchased freedom from the possibility of suffering disappointment.

It is in extension of this thought that the phrase came to be used in its present-day sense—that is money which is so placed or wagered that its owner will not be subject to pain or disappointment as the outcome of the gamble.

A New England spinster has a vivid memory of Texas courtesy.

She was struggling with a hot cup of coffee in a small town railroad station, trying to gulp it before the train pulled out. A cowboy, seated a couple of stools away, noted her plight and seeing the conductor waving at the woman, came to the fore.

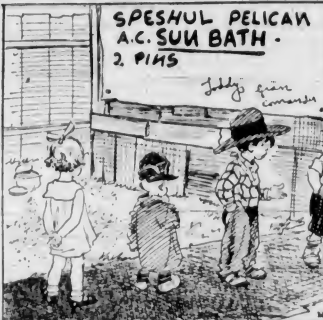

Here, ma'am, you can take my cup of coffee. It's already sudsed and blowed.

B.C. WILL BACK ANOTHER NOTE

Province Takes Flutter in Starch to Aid New Westminster Potato Factory

British Columbia ratepayers backed another industrial note yesterday for $15,000 as a result of action taken by the B.C. Government, under the Department of Industries Act. The guarantee this time is for the British Columbia Starch Company, Limited, of New Westminster.

The Royal City firm plans to turn 250 tons of 1934 potatoes into starch, and to that end has secured a loan of $15,000 from the Canadian Bank of Commerce. The bank is taking as security a lien on the product.

TAKE MORTGAGES

The Province, guaranteeing repayment of the loan at 6 per cent interest, will take a first mortgage on the lands of the company and a chattel mortgage on its equipment and plant.

The guarantee brings to approximately $22,000 the volume of industrial notes backed by the Province in the last eighteen months.

Earlier this week the Province backed a note for the Bazar Brick and Tile Company, Limited, in an industrial guarantee concerning the making of drain tiles.

RESOLUTIONS ARE FRAMED

Duncan Consolidated School Board Prepares Its Plans For Convention

DUNCAN, Aug. 8.—At a meeting of the Duncan Consolidated School Board held last night, the following resolutions were decided on to be submitted to the convention of the British Columbia School Trustees' Association, which is to be held September 16 to 18 at Harrison Hot Springs:

"Be it resolved that Section 170 of the School Act be amended by adding the following: 'Provided that a board of school trustees may by special authority of the provincial health officer vary the system of inspection to meet special requirements in graded schools.'"

"Whereas it appears from the report of the revision committee to the educational finance and administrative commission that representations have been made therein that in the case of certain school boards a portion of the members be not elected, but appointed by the Department of Education."

NO CURTAILMENT

"Be it resolved that this association express to the Minister of Education its belief: "(a) That any curtailment of the present system of administration of education by elected boards would be detrimental to the said system. "(b) That the practice of replacing boards by official trustees should be limited to cases where such a course is absolutely necessary in the interests of education."

"(c) That such replacements should not be made on account only of the geographical location of the school district, nor on account of its being formerly composed of several school districts; and be it further resolved

"That this association express its firm belief in democratic administration of education and that administration by persons appointed by the Government of the day would be a retrograde step."

ANXIOUS FOR BETTER TERMS

Duncan Gives Enthusiastic Support After Hearing B. A. McKelvie's Address

DUNCAN, Aug. 8.—On invitation from the local branch of the Vancouver Island Tourist Association, B. A. McKelvie addressed a meeting last night at the B.O.P. Hall here, the subject of his address being "Better Terms for Vancouver Island."

In presenting the case for better terms, Mr. McKelvie presented an incontrovertible array of facts and figures which were listened to with close attention. Numerous questions were asked, and answered by the speaker, following which, on motion of R. Sanderson, president of the Duncan Chamber of Commerce, the meeting approved the circulating of a petition for better terms. After the meeting, numerous volunteers came forward, and the work of circulating the petition will go on immediately.

Mayor Prevost, who presided at the meeting, expressed the thanks of all present to the speaker for his admirable address, and made a plea for unity with all parts of the island as the only means of securing a measure of justice.

Hailstorm Cause Of Man's Death

BISMARCK, N.D., Aug. 8 (AP).—One man was killed and crops and farm buildings were damaged in a hailstorm which, last night and early today, swept four central North Dakota counties.

Alf Moen, twenty-seven, of near Baita, was killed when he was kicked in the head by a horse frightened by pelting hailstones.

Jane Dixon Says:

I'LL BE GLAD WHEN THE DEPRESSION IS OVER, BECAUSE THEN THE DOZENS OF YOUNGLINGS, WHO LOVE AND LONG FOR MARRIAGE, CAN TUNE IN ON THE WEDDING MARCH

The depression, which we all confidentially hope, is on the wing now, has left a sorry trail of wounded and broken hearts.

Young men have not asked the girls they love to marry them, because they have not been able to take on the financial responsibility of home and family.

Other young men have used the scarcity of money as an excuse for breaking engagements that have become as the scar and yellow leaf of yesterday.

I'll be glad when it's all over, because then the dozens of younglings who love and long for marriage can tune in on the wedding march and live happily forever after.

And the artful dodgers will have to find someone beside Old Man Depression on whom to pin their change of heart.

Dear Miss Dixon: For the past two years I have been engaged, informally, to a young man. We have delayed our marriage simply because he did not make enough money to support us.

Recently he wrote to me, saying he did not believe he could ever make me happy, that he was not making any money and didn't know when he would. I answered that I was perfectly willing to go on with my job and help him while he was preparing for other work. He has not written me since we had a talk on the matter.

I feel terrible, don't know what step to take. He means everything to me. Why has he turned? He assured me he was not in love with another girl, and I don't believe he is. I believe he simply has become discouraged. Of course, if it is another girl, there's nothing to be done about it, but if it's encouragement and love he needs I want to give them to him. I seem to have lost all enthusiasm for life since this happened. Please advise me.—Uncertain.

IT'S HIS NEXT MOVE
Answer: I'm afraid your young man has drifted away. It may be, as you hope, and as I hope for you, that he is merely discouraged. But if I read between your lines correctly, I have omitted parts of your letter—the trouble is indifference rather than discouragement.

A sincere young man, sincerely in love, appreciates a girl who is not only willing but eager to "stand by." Her gallantry gives him new zest for the job of winning through, new hope, fresh inspiration. He devotes himself to her and to the building of their future, together.

You have done your part and more. If he does not return to you it is because you were not designed for one another, and if that is true you would know the truth after marriage instead of before marriage. Then you might have seen cause to lose your enthusiasm for life.

Do nothing for the present. It is his next move.

Dear Jane Dixon: We planned to be married this summer. But my fiancé makes such a small salary—his wages have been cut three times. It would have been all right if I had not lost my job because the firm for which I worked went out of business. I haven't been able to find another.

Sometimes we think we'll just go on and marry, secretly, then live as we do now, he with his parents and I with mine. In other words, we'll take a chance. At least we'll know that we truly belong to each other.

Would you advise us to wait while in the hope things will look brighter or would you take the chance?—Elsie.

Sally Sly Disgraces a Good Name By THORNTON W. BURGESS

One morning when Peter Rabbit made his usual visit to the Old Orchard he found the entire neighborhood quite upset. An indignation meeting was in progress in and around the tree in which Cheever the Flycatcher and his modest little wife had made their home. How the tongues did chatter!

Finally Peter managed to get the attention of Jenny Wren. "What's happened?" demanded Peter. "What's all this fuss about?" Jenny Wren was so excited she couldn't keep still an instant. Her sharp little eyes snapped and her tail was carried higher than ever. "It's a disgrace! It's a disgrace to the whole feathered race, and something ought to be done about it!"

quipped Jenny. "I'm ashamed to think that such a contemptible creature wears feathers. I am so!"

Sally Sly the Cowbird

him that he knew very little about Sally. "Who is Sally Sly, anyway?" he asked.

"For goodness sake, Peter Rabbit, do you mean to tell me you don't know who Sally Sly is?" cried Jenny Wren. Then she rattled on without waiting for a reply. "She's a member of the Blackbird family and the laziest, most good-for-nothing, sneakiest, most unfeeling and selfish wretch I know of. She's a disgrace to a good name."

"Did you say she is a member of the Blackbird family?" asked Peter. Jenny nodded vigorously. "She is just that," said she. "Thank goodness she isn't a member of my family. If she were I never would be able to hold my head up. Just listen to Goldy the Oriole over in that big elm. I don't see how he can sing like that, knowing that one of his relatives has just done such a dreadful deed. It's queer that there can be two members of the same family so unlike. Mrs. Goldy builds one of the most wonderful nests of anyone I know, and Sally Sly is too lazy to build any."
